Code of Conduct

All members of staff play an active role in monitoring the implementation of the school's policy on equal opportunities. Use is made of assemblies, PSHE, RS, drama, English and other lessons to:

- Promote tolerance of each other and respect for each other's position within the school community.
- Promote positive images and role models to avoid prejudice and raise awareness of related issues.
- Foster an open-minded approach and encourage pupils to recognise the contributions made by different cultures.
- Understand why and how we will deal with offensive language and behaviour.

- Understand why we will deal with any incidents involving equal opportunities promptly and in a sensitive manner.

Our Behaviour and Anti-Bullying Policies contain clear procedures for dealing with unlawful discrimination. Teaching and medical staff attend regular INSET sessions on the subject.

Monitoring

The Heads monitor the equal opportunities policy regularly and reports to the Principal and Governors annually in order to ensure its effectiveness.

Dress code

School Uniform

Broomwood has a Christian ethos. We welcome pupils from all backgrounds and offer them the opportunity to practice their own faiths. However, parents should be aware that all pupils are required to wear the school uniform.

Staff Dress Code

Staff should be aware that they are expected to dress in a professionally appropriate manner. A relevant member of the Executive Management Committee will consider written requests for variations in dress on religious or health grounds that are consistent with the school's ethos and its policy on health and safety.

Additional Policies, Procedures and Legal Framework

Staff members reading this policy may wish to consider reading it in conjunction with the Equal Opportunities Policy (Employees) in the Staff Employment Manual and the 'Dress and Personal Appearance Policy'.
